

Behold, I am still with you. Yes, the Official Board and I have agreed to continue ministry together. There will be a letter from the Board mailed in a few days. While the past year has been a difficult time for many, there is now a certainty that continuity will be maintained.

So, where do we go from here in this 'new' arrangement? The Official Board and I will be looking at this over the coming weeks. Some evaluations are certainly in order; plans for the near and distant future, too. Looking anew at what we are called to be and to do would also be an excellent place to visit.

For me the first and most important understanding to be secured is who is in charge. We are first and foremost a community of Faith in Jesus Christ. The overriding principle here is that of the Realm of Jesus.

It is so easy to get bogged down in the affairs of the temporal. Concepts of the life we live in that world can overshadow this precept. Who is in charge? I'll say it—Jesus is in charge. I implore you to consider this basic premise to who we are as children of the Still Speaking God. As we continue our journey together, know that my prayers and meditation have been and always will be for the Master's realm. This is the struggle of the past, present and the future. Jesus asks nothing less than this of each disciple; each child of God; each one of you.

In Epiphany we have seen a great light. Easter is late this year. We have time to discover and plan and, yes, repent. The tasks are before us—how will Jesus be answered?

As always, I am in His Service,

Tom
